“College Kids” H1N1 Clinic Opened To All Residents

Van Wert County Health Department has a H1N1 Clinic scheduled for December 29th geared to the “college kids” that are home for Christmas. The decision has been made to open this clinic to any person 6 months of age or older still in need of the H1N1 vaccine. The clinic will be held at the Health Department, 140 Fox Rd Suite 402 in Van Wert on Tuesday December 29th from 1:00-3:00 pm on a walk in basis. There is no charge for this vaccine. Please pre-register online at www.vanwertcountyhealth.org.
